October 23, 2016 — Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's readings invite us into prayer, into relationship with God. Because relationships feel more natural when we know one another well, Sirach encourages us to know God better. In his wisdom, Sirach tells us what God is like: fair, open-minded, compassionate, and attentive. "The Lord will not delay," he says. Knowing that God's help comes right on time, whenever we need it, calms our hearts and helps us trust the Lord. In his second Letter to Timothy, Saint Paul demonstrates his own trust in God. Despite the grueling struggles Saint Paul has faced because of his Christian faith, he praises the Lord for rescuing him time and again. Today's Gospel draws us close to Jesus too, revealing his special love for the poor and humble. As Jesus tells his parable about the prayer habits of a Pharisee and a tax collector, our hearts long to become as gentle as Christ's.

WHAT IS TRUTH? One of the most pitiful moments in Christ's passion is when Pontius Pilate asks Jesus, "What is truth?" How sad. How bitterly sad to hear Pilate ask that question when he is looking at Truth itself--after all, Jesus is "the way and the truth and the life." (John 14:6) Pilate gazes into the eyes of Truth and doesn't recognize it. We might wonder whether we are any better at recognizing Jesus in our day. Jesus comes to us in truth, goodness, and beauty. He comes to us in the poor. Jesus shows himself in the awkward, unloved, and frustrating people in our lives. Do we recognize him? Do we accept him? And what does this mean for our prayer lives?

HUMILITY IN PRAYER Prayer begins with humility. St. Teresa of Ávila championed humility as the only way to advance in prayer. For her, humility is the same thing as truth. Humility means accepting the truth about God, ourselves, and others. So if we want to pray, we must ask the Lord to show us the truth. We begin by recalling the glorious truth that God creates us out of nothing, simply for love. Recognizing God as our loving creator helps us encounter the Lord in prayer just as Jesus proposes: "the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Our prayer will energize us and give us life when we begin in humility. We can say, "You are God, and I am not. I come to you in prayer because anything I need can come only from you." This kind of prayer leads us to gratitude too, as Saint Paul demonstrates. His words to Timothy might sound prideful: "I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith." On the contrary, Saint Paul simply accepts the truth about himself. He has accomplished nothing without Christ's help. "To him be glory forever and ever," he exclaims. Amen!

Today's Readings: Sir 35:12-14, 16-18; Ps 34:2-3, 17-19, 23; 2 Tm 4:6-8, 16-18; Lk 18:9-14

October 23, 2016

Dear Family:

Today's readings center on the experience of prayer. We sing and speak in prayer and we pray silently. We offer prayers of petition, praise, and thanksgiving. Prayer is our conversation with God. When we pray, and what we say when we pray, says a lot about who we are and who we think God is.

In the first reading from Sirach we hear that "the prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds;" in the psalm we sing, "The Lord hears the cry of the poor." It's not that the lowly and the poor are closer to God by being poor and lowly, it's that they turn to God and not into themselves.

This is precisely the point of the parable in today's Gospel passage. The Pharisee has lived a virtuous life, doing more than the Law requires of a devout person. The tax collector was, by reputation and practice, despised and fraudulent, and he readily admits he is a sinner.

The conclusion of the parable reverses the expectations of Jesus' audience. The Pharisee turns inward and does not seek anything from God; it appears that he only wants God to hear him report on all the pious things he's done. His put-down of the tax collector is intended to make himself even better in the eyes of God. The favor Jesus gives to the tax collector rests on his turning outward to God, who alone can be merciful and lead him to a transformed life.

Perhaps there is a little of the Pharisee in each of us; we can sometimes be judgmental. We might well boast of our good deeds; even Paul declares, "I have competed well; I have kept the faith." Later in the reading, Paul gives the credit for his efforts to the Lord.

And we are also like the tax collector when we are honest and humble. The Lord hears the cry of all of us; our prayers pierce the clouds seeking the mercy of God.

Some questions for reflection:

How does the parable help you to center your prayer?

What do you think Paul means when he says, "I am already being poured out like a libation"?

What spiritual wisdom do you find in the First Reading?

Thanks for all those involved with our St. John School's recent celebration of Grandparent's Day. The event was well attended and the gift of grandparents was honored. Thanks as well to our local Police and the Sheriff's office for assisting our efforts for safety for such a huge event.

Many thanks for the Knights of Columbus, their families, vendors, volunteers, our local law enforcement, Parish President, Council members, mayor and all who made this year's celebration of the Acadian Festival a success. It was great to visit with so many of you out on the festival grounds. This town event gets better each year and helps our community at large.

Peace,

Fr. Greg Daigle

St. John Cemetery — 12 Noon

Grace Memorial — 2:00 pm

The Mass Intention Book will open on Saturday, October 29 for the scheduling of Masses for the next year (2017). Forms will be inserted in next week's bulletin and will be placed on the bookshelves at the back of Church. You may also access FORMS on our church website, www.stjohnchurchplaq.org.

If you wish to schedule a Mass, please fill out a Mass Intention form. Please include your name, address and telephone number in the event we have questions about your intentions and need to contact you. We will try to schedule Masses in the order in which the forms are received to the best of our ability.

Please return the form and your check to the St. John Parish Office or drop it in the collection basket at any weekend Mass.

Candles—In Memoriam: On All Saints Day, Tuesday, November 1, our parish will remember in a special way all those who died within the past year and who were buried from St. John Church.

A candle will burn at the Altar for each deceased parishioner. After 6:00 pm Mass, family members may take the candle and burn it at home in memory of their deceased loved ones.

Book of Remembrance: On the Feasts of All Saints and All Souls, we remember and pray for our loved ones who have died.

During the month of November, parishioners are encouraged to list the names of their deceased loved ones in the Book of Remembrance. This book will be near the stairs to the choir loft in church on November 5 and will remain during the month of November. You may write the names of loved ones in the book at your convenience.

ST. JOHN CEMETERY FRESHMAN SERVICE PROJECT

Last year, St. John students and teachers cleaned and painted graves at St. John Cemetery on Main Street. High school students will once again have a service day Tuesday, October 25, to clean and prepare graves in anticipation of All Saints' Day.

If you have a loved one or know of any elderly people who are unable to care for loved ones' graves, the students would be happy to help.

Call St. John School at 225.687.6616 and ask for Lisa Morel or Brenda Fremin for assistance.

Help Keep Our Cemetery Beautiful

A cemetery envelope has been added to the church contribution packet for the month of October. Please place your donation for the upkeep of St. John Cemetery on Main Street in Plaquemine in the envelope provided. It will be marked "Cemetery" and can be placed in any of the offertory baskets at weekend Masses.

Thank you for your generous contributions.

Christmas Cards for Inmates

The Catholic Community at Louisiana State Penitentiary and the Chaplain's Department are inviting our parish to participate in the Christmas card program. Their goal is to provide each inmate with at least 5 cards and envelopes.

Anyone interested in donating new religious Christmas cards should drop them off at the St. John Church office by Friday, December 2. Deacon Alfred Ricard will be taking the cards to the prison.

We can accept Birthday and Get Well cards also. Religious cards are preferred.

2017 CHURCH CALENDARS

The 2017 church calendars are available to our parishioners at the entrances to the church. You may pick up your calendar after any weekend Mass.

Special thanks to Wilbert Funeral Services.

Lion's Club Spaghetti Dinners

The Plaquemine Lions Club will be selling spaghetti dinner tickets this weekend and next weekend after all Masses.

The dinners, cooked by Tiger Grace, may be picked up Sunday, November 6 from 11:00 am-1:00 pm. Drive through the Iberville Bank parking lot next to Church or the Lion's Club on Bayou Jacob Road.

The proceeds from the dinners will benefit the Louisiana Crippled Children's Fund as well as less fortunate families in Plaquemine.
