August 6, 2017 — The Transfiguration of the Lord

Today's feast of the Transfiguration presents the full force of God's power. In the rare moments when humans are permitted to encounter God's intense fullness, the human reaction is the same: fear. The prophet Daniel is so frightened by his visions that he falls flat on his face in terror. Today's Gospel reports that Peter, James, and John were "very much afraid" when they saw Jesus transfigured on the mountain. They too fell prostrate in fear. These mighty revelations of God's brilliant majesty have a paralyzing effect on those who witness them. God does not prefer to terrify us, however. God chooses only rare moments to reveal the divine glory, and then sends witnesses to the rest of us so we can believe without fear. Saint Peter's letter advises us to be attentive to God's witnesses. Their testimony is true. Their words renew our hearts and transform our lives.

THE EYE OF THE BEHOLDER Saint Matthew's Gospel reveals that Jesus' face "shone like the sun" during his transfiguration. The evangelist is using a figure of speech, of course, but we can imagine what beholding the Transfiguration might have been like for Peter, James, and John. The brightness of Jesus' face is compared to the sun. Earth is about ninety-three million miles distant from the sun, yet if we look directly at it, we suffer retinal burns, permanent eye damage, or severe vision loss. The disciples were so close to the Lord during his transfiguration that he could touch them. What is it like to behold the brightness of Jesus? The disciples were terrified. Perhaps looking at Jesus in his glory feels as dangerous as staring at a solar eclipse. Sure enough, the disciples hid their eyes, falling flat on their faces.

GOD'S MERCY Although the disciples' experience on the mountain was frightening, our merciful Lord does not want fear to overshadow the miracle they witnessed. Jesus touched them, saying, "Rise, and do not be afraid." God's words from the cloud overhead were similarly encouraging: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." God lovingly reassures us, confirming Jesus' identity as the Son of Man and inviting us to pay attention to the One who comes to save us. Saint Peter, an eyewitness to the event, declares that his testimony is "altogether reliable." We can depend on his word. Saint Peter hopes his words act like a "lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts." Thanks be to God, we can rely on the life-changing experiences of others to help transform our own lives. We may not ever have intimidating mountaintop revelations like Peter, James, and John, so we listen to them as witnesses of God's majesty. All of our readings today remind us that God gives us the Word to believe and live, and sends us the words of Daniel, Peter, and Matthew to encourage us.

Today's Readings: Dn 7:9-10, 13-14; Ps 97:1-2, 5-6, 9; 2 Pt 1:16-19; Mt 17:1-9

August 6, 2017

Dear Family:

We celebrate the Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord this weekend. "And he was transfigured before them". What mysterious and amazing words! Though unfamiliar to us, early Christians would have recognized the idea of transfiguration. In Jewish end times writings, the verb "metamorphoo" pointed to the miraculous change of form to be experienced by God's faithful in the age to come after a time of intense earthly suffering. Although that verb isn't used in the vision of the prophet Daniel, the scene he pictures bears some similarities to the Gospel scene: one "like a Son of Man" is given glory and kingship by God ("the Ancient One"). The phrase "Son of Man" - in its most generic meaning, a human being - here refers to an exalted figure who comes in triumph at the end of time. The title is commonly used for Jesus in the Gospel accounts as in Matthew 16:27.

All three of the synoptic gospels (Matthew, Mark, and Luke) place the event on a mountain. In biblical tradition, human beings usually encounter God on mountains. The Transfiguration account in Matthew comes just after Jesus' prediction of his Passion and his teaching that disciples must be prepared to follow the same way. It also follows Peter's confession that Jesus is the Messiah, and so this majestic scene of Jesus in the presence of Moses and Elijah (who represent the Law and the Prophets), his face glowing, as did Moses' face when he received the Commandments, reinforces Peter's insight that Jesus is the Messiah. Jesus is transformed into a glory, or brilliant light, evoking the radiance of God. The transformation experienced at that moment was but a preview and perhaps a preparation for the glory that would be his when he rose from the dead.

Some questions for reflection:

How many references to light can you find in all of the readings? What do you make of them?

At what other time have we heard the same words from God about Jesus?

When have you had a "transfiguration" experience? What was it like?

Even though the pace of summertime slows down somewhat, we still have lots going on. We recently settled an issue with an infiltration of bees. Reported leaks from our roof into the church are being investigated and soon to be repaired. A company has been busy cleaning up the sanctuary and all the floors in our church. Several of our candlesticks that were on the former Altar needed repair and the others were brought to J. Prestes and Co., for a good cleaning. Summer often affords us the opportunity to clean up and/or build up. A big thanks to the Altar Society for their help with the clean up in our church. Also, many thanks to Mr. Gary Perrault and Mr. Medric Smith, Jr. for their coordination and supervision of these projects.

Congratulations to Mrs. Wanda Ashley & Mrs. Cindy Rodrigue and all who assisted with Vacation Bible School for a wonderful Vacation Bible School.

Thanks to Mr. Vic Blanchard and Mr. Chris Reeves who have been nominated, selected and have accepted positions on the St. John School Advisory Board. Many thanks as well for the hard and dedicated work of Chief Kenny Payne and Mr. Danny Cedotal for their years of service on the Advisory Board.

I am humbled to make this appeal to you for some additional assistance with regard to St. Clement Chapel. Our Chapel needs a new roof. I was wondering, hoping and praying that some of our parishioners might come forward to help with their donations that we might replace the roof. We did patch a section over the summer, but were told by the inspector that a new roof was needed. Can you please help? Please call Medric Smith, Jr. or speak to me if there is a way you can help.

I also need assistance from willing parishioners to assist with Fr. Pat Mascarella's travel from his condo on Spanish Town Road to St. John's and back on the days he will be celebrating Eucharist with us. His friend and driver, Beverly LeBeau, has some health issues that will require surgery. You who have seen Beverly with Father Pat and Pace (aka Fr. Pat's service dog) know of her dedication to them. We are praying for a successful surgery and full recovery. Are you able to help? Please call the office or speak to me after Mass if this is a ministry in which you might be able to serve.

Peace,

Fr. Greg

Priestly Transportation

Fr. Pat and Pace need transportation from his Spanish Town Road condo to St. John's and back. His usual driver has some health issues that require surgery. Fr. Pat is usually scheduled two or three times a month. Please help us by taking part in this ministry to Fr. Pat and to all of us. Hopefully, enough will come forward to serve in this way that it will not be a burden on a few. If we had 3 or 4 teams (one for pick up and transportation to St. John and one for Fr. Pat's return home) all should go well. We need your "Yes". Please call the office or speak to Fr. Greg after Mass if you can assist. Thanks.

2017 VBS, “A Treasure Tour of the New Testament,” was a Tremendous Success! Thanks to all parents, grandparents, volunteers, teachers and Junior Helpers for making our VBS so successful. A special thank you to those who made monetary donations.

Especially thank you to all students for their participation and for making our week a truly spiritual event.
