ADVENT

DECEMBER 24, 2017 | FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

December 24, 2017—Fourth Sunday of Advent TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Children of the parish are somewhat focused on Santa Claus these days, who is keeping an eye on who's naughty and who's nice. Santa Claus, with his heavenly patron Saint Nicholas, has been more or less in charge of gift-giving to American children for a hundred years or so. In other places, perhaps more attentive to our Christian tradition, there are different gift-bearers. In Greece, Saint Basil delivers the presents on his feast day, December 31, and makes sure everyone is sprinkled with holy water. The Baby Jesus is in charge elsewhere, called the Christkind in Austria and Belgium, El Niño Jesús in Columbia, and Le Petit Jesus in France, where he shares his duties with Père Noël. In the Czech Republic almost everyone is atheist, but Je í ek, the infant Jesus, brings gifts to one and all. In Poland the "Star Man" is said to bring the gifts, although often he turns out to be the village priest in disguise. Saint Nicholas, not his Americanized cousin, is the giver in Holland, where he wears a bishop's miter, and in Russia, where he wears a bishop's crown. Soviet Russia tried to dethrone Saint Nicholas and promote Grandfather Frost, but no one was much fooled by this attempt to squeeze religion out of Christ's birth. One country has a saintly woman in charge of the gifts, Saint Lucy, honored in Sweden on December 13, when children serve their parents breakfast in bed, and others awake to news that they have been nominated for a Nobel Prize. Some children have a second round of gifts on Epiphany, when the magi assume the gift-giving duties. In general, the gifts of Christmas are simple pleasures, not great heaps of treasures. Once upon a time, a new pair of socks or an orange was enough for us. No matter what gifts we receive, all of them are to point us to the true gift, and the true giver.

December 24, 2017

Dear Family:

On behalf of Deacon Alfred Ricard, our Parish Staff and our St. John School Community, I offer our fervent prayers and Blessings for you and your families to enjoy a Blessed Christmas Season and a Joyous New Year!

Two weeks ago our church was filled for a St. John School Concert of Christmas Music. It was a beautiful expression of using our gifts to praise God for the gift of Jesus Christ coming to us at that First Christmas in Bethlehem. All present were blessed with gratitude. The administrative team, our teachers, coaches, support staff and support organizations do such a wonderful job all year long. In a special way we thank Mr. David Aguillard for enabling such giftedness to shine through, especially in this time of year with music.

At the concert, one of our students read to us the story of the song "Silent Night". Many folks heard for the first time the story of Franz Gruber's classic Christmas Hymn. On Christmas Eve, the pipe organ would not work and would not be available for Midnight or Christmas Masses. Franz Gruber, urgently sat down and penned a tune that could be played on guitar. That hymn is our beloved "Silent Night".

I share that story with you now to remind us all that with the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, any darkness can be illuminated with the light of our faith in Jesus Christ. As we welcome our Christ again at this year's celebration of the Nativity of Our Lord, may the light and joy of the birth of Jesus lead us to a deeper communion with our God and greater solidarity with one another.

Many thanks to all who helped ready our church and community for the Feast of Christmas. Thanks to our women's retreat director, our Catechists, all liturgical ministers, the decorating angels, the Alhambra group, Catholic Daughters of America, Knights of Columbus, Altar Society, Our Brother's Keeper, Homebound ministers and ministers to our two local Nursing Homes, Hospitality ministers for coffee and donuts, Loaves and Fishes ministry, Scouts, Grief Support group ministry, Giving Tree ministers, Prayer Blanket ministers, Bible Study coordinators and Adult Formation team, Prison ministry team, Knights of Peter Claver Women's Auxiliary and all others who share their gifts to bring the light of Christ to our community. Please know that you are all appreciated. Like the composer, Franz Gruber, you share your gifts most generously and lift us all up in Christ.

I have been deep into rehearsal for the Annual Epiphany Concert to benefit our St. John School. Please come and join me, Bill Grimes and the 26 piece Epiphany Orchestra for a special close to the Christmas Season on Epiphany Sunday. Please buy up those tickets or offer a donation to benefit our great school.

Merry Christmas!

Peace,

Fr. Greg

Epiphany Concert

Fr. Greg Daigle will crown the Christmas season with songs of faith and other music as well on Epiphany Sunday, January 7 at 4:00 p.m. at St. John Church.

The Epiphany Concert features a selection of holiday music performed by Father Greg, accompanied by the Bill Grimes Orchestra and special guest vocalists.

These tickets ($25) make wonderful Christmas gifts and are available for purchase through St. John School (225.687.3056) and the St. John Church Office (225.687.2402). All proceeds from the concert benefit the music programs at St. John School.

Knights of Columbus Fireworks Sale

The Knights of Columbus will be selling fireworks at the K.C. Home on Price Street.

The fireworks will be sold Saturday, December 23 and 30 from 2:00 pm-8:30 pm, December 26-29 from 6:00 pm-8:30 pm. On New Year's Eve, December 31, the fireworks will be sold from 12:00 pm-till.

Please support the Knights of Columbus in all the good works they do for our church and community.

A Grateful Acknowledgement

A grateful acknowledgement is made to everyone who took a candy cane and purchased a gift for the Giving Tree. A very special THANK YOU to Ivan and Jennifer Cabrera for donating over 20 bicycles.

The generosity of our parishioners will make Christmas brighter for 500 children of our area.

History of St. John The Evangelist Church

The Altar Society will be selling St. John the Evangelist Church history booklets. The booklet encompasses the details of the inception of the building beginning in 1850 until currently. It includes descriptions of the architecture, stained glass windows and fun facts including:

When did St. John Church acquire the Fontanini nativity collection? It began when Fr. Cleo Milano was assigned to St. John Church in 2002 through the generous donations of many parishioners. In addition, the extensive decorations at Christmas were begun under the creativity and leadership of Dr. and Mrs. James Grace, May Kay and Bruce Capone and have continued since.

The booklets are being sold in the St. John Church Office for $10.00. Get your copy today!

Spring 2018 Bible Study "The Wild Goose is Loose!"

"The Wild Goose" is a series by Fr. Dave Pivonka of St. Augustine Institute on the work of the Holy Spirit to awaken us to God's love and transforming power. Although the most common symbol of the Holy Spirit is the dove, the wild goose is another symbol developed in Ireland for the free and sometimes unpredictable nature of the Holy Spirit.

Discover a deeper relationship with the Holy Spirit by attending one of three weekly sessions beginning Thursday, January 4 (1:30 pm-3:00 pm or 6:30 pm-8:00 pm) or Monday, January 8 (6:30 pm-8:00 pm) in the St. John Church Office conference room. The series continues until Holy Week.

You may call the church office at 225.687.2402 to register, or for more information call Donna Carville at 225.776.3205. The fee for the guide/journal is $10.00.
