January 14, 2018

Hello, God

Just before our first reading it says that "the word of the LORD was rare; there were not many visions." (1Sam 3:1) I imagine most people today would think that was true. Do you think God has stopped talking? People apparently felt that way in Samuel's time. Let's look at the reading to see what Samuel's experience can teach us.

At first Samuel thinks it is Eli calling him. It is not unusual for people to miss a sign from God. If you have a talent that you are proud of, perhaps it is a sign that God wants you to use that talent to help others. Or if a friend tells you she is concerned about your health, it could be God's way of telling you to get help. Try to see God speaking in whatever happens to you and you may hear a lot more than you think.

Samuel also gets help from Eli. Eli began to recognize that the LORD was speaking to Samuel. Sometimes we need help discerning what the Lord is telling us. A good spiritual director can help. He or she will probably ask how often you pray. In our reading Samuel finally speaks directly to God, instead of going back to Eli.

So if you wonder what God plans for your life, try spending more time in prayer with him. I bet we have all had times where we didn't know if we are doing God's will because we didn't take time to pray. But don't do all the talking. Give God some quiet time to hear his response. For God hasn't stopped talking; we just stopped listening.

Reflection

How Much Is Enough?

In the quest to achieve financial independence and to secure our future, there is a temptation to think that if we could just acquire a certain amount of money for things, that all would be well. We would then have our precious nest egg and our futures would be safe and secure. But when it comes to money and material possessions, no amount is ever enough. Human desires are infinite and will always outstrip our current possessions. Maybe this is a good thing insofar as it keeps us moving and striving. But it can also distract us from doing God's work, and so perhaps we should flip the question around, and not ask "How much is enough?" but rather, "How little will suffice?" Most of us would be amazed to learn how little it takes to keep us going. A modicum of food, some clothes on our back, and shelter from the storm is more than enough to keep a human body alive and well. All the rest is surplus, and often a distraction from our true mission, which is to love God and our fellow man. Seek what is enough to do God's work, not what is needed for your greed.

—Christopher Simon

"Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothes?"

—Matthew 6:25

History of St. John The Evangelist Church

The Altar Society will be selling St. John the Evangelist Church history booklets. The booklet encompasses the details of the inception of the building beginning in 1850 until currently. It includes descriptions of the architecture, stained glass windows and fun facts such as these:

- Where was the first Catholic Church in Louisiana? Bayou Goula! In the baptistery is a stained glass window of a priest baptizing a Goulas Indian. The first Mass was celebrated in 1700.
- Did a real saint come to St. John the Evangelist Church?

Yes, St. Rose Philippine Duchesne visited Plaquemine in 1822. She founded the Religious of the Sacred Heart of America. She is also in one of the stained glass windows in the baptistery.

The booklets are being sold in the St. John Church Office for $10.00. Get your copy today!

St. John the Evangelist Church Rectory Decorations

When did the rectory get decorated for the Christmas season? It began in 2002 when Fr. Cleo Milano first came to St. John Church. He wanted to have an Open House for the congregation so he went to the wholesale florist with Dianne Grace and purchased the burgundy and gold ornaments that adorn the many decorations in the rectory. He then called Kathy Wilbert and asked her to decorate with the supplies that he had obtained.

Kathy spent many days lovingly creating the beautiful garlands for the three fireplaces, the three trees – one large flocked tree in the living room, one in the library and one in the kitchen. She also created the beautiful garland over the archway going into the living room. Even the enclosed porch next to the kitchen has its own garland. Peeking out in almost every nook and cranny are beautiful gold and burgundy ornaments nestled in green garland laced with gold cording. The stairway in the foyer is also draped with a plush garland.

Kathy led the rectory decorating team for 11 years. Sallye Troxclair and Evelyn Varnell now lead the team with Fr. Greg's request to yearly alternate a green tree in the living room with a flocked tree, giving more variety to the festive surroundings.

Please note...

If you are a newcomer to St. John the Evangelist Church Parish, have recently married, or no longer live with your parents, please remember to fill out a census form to register here.

Anyone who does not receive church contribution envelopes is not registered. You may register by calling the St. John Church Office at 225.687.2402 and we will be happy to mail a census form to you. You may also pick up a census form from the bookshelves in the back of church, or access FORMS via our website, www.stjohnchurchplaq.org.
