Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

November 24, 2019

Jesus, Remember Me

The man who hung on the cross next to Jesus asks him to "remember me when you come into your kingdom." Of all the people who took part in the crucifixion of Jesus, only this man sincerely acknowledges Jesus as King. Only he receives the promise of joining Jesus in paradise that very day. I wonder if he knew what Jesus' kingdom meant?

The second reading gives us a better idea of the extent of that kingdom. Paul uses images of things visible and invisible, of dominions, principalities, and powers. Notice one short phrase that appears six times in that reading: "all things." If Christ is King of all things, that includes our possessions. We might keep that in mind, not only when deciding how much we give to the poor or to the Church, but also how we use the things we own. The things we watch on TV, the foods we eat, the books we read--all are under Jesus' kingship. I might even drive more carefully if I remember that my car belongs to the Lord.

Even our life is under his reign. That can remind us to trust Jesus more, as well as to ask for the guidance of his Spirit in our decisions. If we let the Lord guide our lives, we know that anything that happens to us is either God's will or something that Jesus can lead us through, on our way to paradise.

Bringing Christmas Joy

Christmas Cards for Inmates

The Catholic Community at Louisiana State Penitentiary and the Chaplain's Department are again inviting our parish to participate in the Christmas card program. Their goal is to provide each inmate with at least 5 cards and envelopes.

Anyone interested in donating new religious Christmas cards should drop them off at the St. John Church office by Friday, December 6. Deacon Alfred Ricard will be taking the cards to the prison.

We can accept Birthday and Get Well cards also. Religious cards are preferred.

Advent Giving Tree

The Giving Tree will be set up in church Saturday, November 30, 2019 for you to take a candy cane with a child's name.

Please buy a gift and share the joy of Jesus' birth with them. Gifts are due December 7. We will be sorting the gifts in the Parish Hall on Sunday, December 15 if anyone would like to help. This will be a great opportunity for students to receive service hours.

Catechism Corner

St. Ignatius Loyola taught people to pray by helping them become aware of God's presence in their daily lives. He believed that if we could discover God's presence, we would experience his personal love more deeply and have a greater sense of what he is calling us to do. He called this form of prayer a Daily Examen.

St. Ignatius' examen is listed below:

1. Invite the Holy Spirit to help you see the day as God sees it.
2. Be thankful. Name the gifts of your day, and thank God for them.
3. Notice God's presence. Where did you feel an increase of faith, hope and love?
4. Notice where you felt what seemed like a lack of God's presence. Where did you feel a decrease of faith, hope and love? Why?
5. Look to the future.

Ask God for the grace you need in the day ahead.
Close with an Our Father.
