Connections

The second reading this Sunday is not easy to follow, especially when some of Paul's sentences are more like paragraphs. But you will notice that he makes several important connections: between sin and death, between Adam and Jesus, and between obedience and disobedience.

Sin, he says, is the cause of death. Of course, everyone is subject to death at some point, even if they haven't sinned. A less serious sin can be a little "death" when it makes us feel that we are not as close to God as we could be. And sins that we might think are not a big deal, like smoking, can lead to serious health problems.

The connection between Adam and Jesus is not so obvious. Adam was the first to bring sin and death into the world. Jesus is the first to bring forgiveness by his death on the cross. The main difference between them is that Adam disobeyed God, while Jesus was obedient to his Father. Adam reminds me of a child who knows what he is supposed to do, but thinks that he can do the opposite and get away with it.

In the Gospel, Satan can be thought of as trying to get Jesus to do things the easy way. When he tempts Jesus to turn stones into bread, he shows Jesus an easy way to feed the people. But Jesus takes a better way, when he feeds us with himself in the Eucharist. The devil says Jesus can throw himself off the temple as a dramatic way to attract followers; Jesus lets himself hang from the cross to draw people to himself. Satan promises the kingdoms of the world if Jesus will only worship him. But Jesus chose to be crowned with thorns and receive his kingdom when he rose from the dead.

 (Mt. 7:7-9)

Month of St. Joseph

The Church traditionally dedicates the month of March to the special veneration of St. Joseph, whose feast day is March 19. "He was chosen by the eternal Father as the trustworthy guardian and protector of his greatest treasures, namely, his divine Son and Mary, Joseph's wife," says St. Bernardine of Siena. "He carried out this vocation with complete fidelity until at last God called him, saying 'Good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of your Lord.'"

Due to St. Joseph's leadership of the Holy Family, he has been declared the protector and patron of the universal Catholic Church.

May God continue to pour out His blessings on these young people and the members of their families, that they may continue to grow in faith and love throughout the years.

AUCTION! AUCTION! AUCTION!

It's that time of year again and planning is well underway for the Annual St. John Auction, which will be held on Saturday, March 28 at the Carl F. Grant Civic Center from 5-9pm.

In the past, this community has been overwhelmingly supportive of this event. We are asking for your help to make this year's auction even more successful. If you own a business, have a talent or special craft, or simply make a purchase that you want to donate, we would love to showcase them. Any item, large or small, that you can contribute would be greatly appreciated. All donations and donors are listed on the auction program and all donated items are tax deductible.

Raffle tickets ($2) are being sold now and will be sold auction night as well. Winner need not be present.

- 1st prize: $1,000
- 2nd prize: $250
- 3rd prize: $150

For more information, contact Jennifer Landry at sjauction@yahoo.com.

St. Clement Cookbooks

The Altar Society will be reprinting the St. John Church history book and combining it with the St. Clement of Rome "The Feast of St. Clement" cookbook which is out of print.

We would like to include your family's favorite recipe. Please submit your recipe to the church office or to Donna Carville at dbcaville@gmail.com. This recipe book will consist of unique recipes which will be difficult to find on the internet because most of them are family favorites.

This effort will take a while to organize but the goal is to have them ready for Christmas 2020.

St. Monica

St. Monica was raised in a Catholic family in long extinct Christian North Africa. Monica had at least three children and one of them was her oldest and dearest son, Augustine.

Monica married a man named Patricius and converted him. He was a difficult man whose early death left her a widow at forty. Monica and her husband wanted their gifted son Augustine to receive the best education possible, so they sent him away for schooling. There Augustine fell into the serious and enduring moral and theological errors which would form the central drama of Monica's life.

It is said that all of the plots in the world can be reduced to just five or six. One of those is "Get back home." Saint Monica's life was dedicated to getting her son back to his home, the Church. She wept, she prayed, she fasted. Nothing seemed to work for fifteen years while her son strayed far from the Catholic path, seemingly without remorse.

While in Milan, Monica befriended the great Saint Ambrose, who played such a key role in Augustine's conversion. The seed of her prayers bore fruit when Augustine abandoned his sinful life, was baptized, and decided to return to North Africa as a Christian leader. Her son had come home to the Church and was returning to his native land.

Her life's mission accomplished, Saint Monica died in her late fifties in the Roman port of Ostia, while waiting to board the ship to cross over to Africa. In her final hours, Augustine asked if he should transport her body to her hometown for burial next to her husband. She said she was happy to be buried wherever she died, for "nothing is far from God." Her remains are now found in the Basilica of Saint Augustine in central Rome.

Mothers concerned for their sons and daughters path might call on the intercession of St. Monica who prayed for the conversion of her son, Augustine, for many years before he was baptized.

The Spirit of truth is within you. You are not alone. Reflect on how God is calling you at this time in your life. If God is calling you to a Church vocation, contact Fr. Andrew Merrick at 225.336.8778, amerrick@diobr.org.
