Pentecost Sunday
See the Holy Spirit

In the readings on Pentecost Sunday, the Spirit is described as a driving wind and tongues of fire. Knowing that the Holy Spirit is a Person of the Trinity, we seem to be able to picture the Spirit only in terms of what the Spirit does. In our second reading, Paul tries to explain just that.

First, Paul says that we cannot know Jesus as Lord without the Spirit. The Spirit is the way Jesus is present today, so anyone who truly believes in Jesus is guided by the Spirit. Second, he acknowledges that the Spirit works in many ways. As examples, Paul mentions there are many different gifts and services in the church. He emphasizes that all these differences come from one and the same God.

When we think of the strength of the Church, we usually think of its unity, i.e., one baptism, one faith, one Lord. But we also draw strength from the diversity of gifts and services that people offer to God. So look at the gifts of those around you, and you may be able to see the Holy Spirit more clearly.

May 31, 2020

Dear Family:

As the Church celebrates Pentecost, we remember how the Holy Spirit emboldened those gathered in the upper room to proclaim the Gospel to diverse populations gathered in Jerusalem, extending Jesus' message of peace to all. We reflect on Jesus' message of peace to all and recognize the Spirit's continuing work in the Church, uniting us as we celebrate our diversity of gifts and bringing the peace of Christ through forgiveness of sins. May our celebration of Pentecost inspire us to be people of hope and peace.

Some questions for reflection;

- With whom do I need to find peace? Ask for the Holy Spirit's guidance to take steps toward forgiveness and reconciliation.
- How may we think of Pentecost as marking a challenging beginning rather than a great ending?
- What may it mean to "renew the face of the earth" today?

I experienced great Easter joy last weekend as some of us were finally able to gather for worship. Our celebrations of the Eucharist are so integral to our lives as Catholic Christians. I pray that as we begin to take steps to normalcy again we are renewed in our appreciation for God's salvation in Jesus Christ. I pray that our worship spiritually embraces those who, for the time being, will not be back in church for worship, I pray our celebration is indeed an intercession in the name of Christ Jesus for the healing of all in this time of pandemic.

I have been so long in my "Fortress of Solitude" that hearing others pray in community brought me great comfort and renewal. Thank you all for your constancy in caring for our church. Your gifts of service to one another during this time has blessed your world and ours. Your monetary gifts during this time has blessed us by not having to turn anyone away or worry about bills. You have truly been family in the Lord. Thank you all so much.

As usual at this time of year, I'll be taking off to Tennessee to see my brother Paul and his family there. I'll return for Masses next weekend. I regret not being here to celebrate Pentecost with you and look forward to my return as we continue our way out of this health emergency. Fr. Jon Koehler will be with you to celebrate the vigil and 7:30 a.m. Mass. Fr. Eddie Martin, assigned to St. Anne in Napoleonville, St. Philomena in Labadieville, and Assumption Church in Plattenville will celebrate the 9 and 11 a.m. Masses. Please offer them a warm St. John welcome.

Peace,

Fr. Greg

Recipes — Old and New, Tried and True

St. John Church Altar Society will be publishing a new cookbook that will include unique family favorite recipes plus a brief history of the 3 Catholic churches that have served Plaquemine - St. John the Evangelist, Immaculate Conception and St. Clement of Rome. We are looking for those family favorites that can't be found if you “Google it!”

All proceeds go to helping our church in projects which are many since the current St. John Church building is almost 100 years old.

Please send your recipes to dbcarville@gmail.com or text 225.776.3205 and spread the word to your friends and family. Deadline for recipes is 6/30/20. Thank you for helping!
