Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 11, 2020

Come to the Feast

Why would invited guests refuse to come to a wedding? Free food and drink, music and dancing--what's not to like? By this time, Jesus knew that many of the Jewish leaders would not accept the invitation to follow him. As we know, after the Resurrection the disciples began to spread the good news not only to other Jews, but to anyone who would listen.

One reason the leaders in Israel did not accept Jesus was his association with sinners. They did not understand that God calls sinners to repent and be forgiven. Ordinary people, who knew they were sinners, were attracted by the offer of forgiveness. Many of them repented and came to be baptized. As the parable says, they filled the banquet hall.

So what about the man in the parable who came in street clothes? The wedding garment was a symbol of the baptismal gown, the sign of new life in Christ. So this man symbolizes those who "come to the feast" without repenting of their sins.

We can be like that man sometimes. We come to church, arguing with our spouse on the way. We bring our prejudices, lies, anger, and selfishness--with no intention of doing anything about them. We come with the attitude that says, "I'm here, aren't I? That should be good enough." But it's not. By dying for our sins, Jesus calls us to come back to God. So repentance is not just a change of clothing, it is a change of heart. It is our ticket to the banquet, our way of saying, "I know I don't deserve this, but thanks for letting me share the feast."

OUR BROTHERS' KEEPER ESTABLISHES BROADER MISSION

Our Brothers' Keeper has closed its doors for the foreseeable future. Having given out its last food distribution on March 18, 2020 as COVID 19 restrictions went into effect, the Brothers' Keeper Board recently met and decided to broaden its mission from providing food to other pressing needs in our community. The thrift store located next to the food distribution remains open from 8am – 1pm Monday through Friday and is a source of employment for Association of Retarded Citizens.

During this ongoing quarantine period, the Baton Rouge Food Bank has been distributing boxes of food to local families with the help of the Louisiana National Guard. The food that was still in Our Brothers' Keeper was donated to Catholic Charities in Lake Charles due to their urgent need after Hurricane Laura. Catholic Charities in Baton Rouge provided the truck, trailer and driver to transport the food to Lake Charles. Our Brothers' Keeper volunteers from the Board, Ed Clement, Woody Simpson and John Wayne Businelle and Knights of Columbus volunteers Joey Daigle, Boonie Boudreaux, Joel Ducote, John Miller and Charlie Carville packed the food into boxes and loaded the truck and trailer.

Our Brothers' Keeper was created in 1987 by Fr. Jerome Dugas to help needy families in Plaquemine. At that time he called it St. Jude but in 1988 it became a nonprofit organization and renamed Our Brothers' Keeper. Many parishioners have been involved over the years.

Original Board members were: Ray Boudreaux, Marie Eby, Carol Flatau, Etta Lee Gulotta, Paul Lamothe, Carl Orcino and Sisse Reinhardt. Current Board members are: Amy Flatau, President; Margaret Businelle, Vice President; Beverly Percle, Treasurer; and Laura Badeaux, Secretary. Other Board members are Margie Lepere, Sandra Bizette, Rita Jean Mooney and Donna Carville. In addition volunteers from Grand River Methodist Church, First United Methodist Church and Plaquemine Service League contributed their time and donations to Our Brothers' Keeper. Students at MSA and St. John School as well as Court St. John of Catholic Daughters of America collected food annually.
