What Do You Want?

Jesus was starting to become very popular, at least with the ordinary people. They had seen how he had cured the sick and cast out demons. Jesus knew the people would not understand this and try to proclaim him as their king. Jesus had no intention of living as a worldly king, in comfort and riches. In fact, he came to free people from needing wealth and power.

Popularity and wealth do not interest St. Paul, either. When he preaches the gospel, the good news of Christ's resurrection, He specifically refuses to be paid for his preaching, to show that he will be rewarded by Christ.

So what do you hope for; what is your goal in life? Do you only feel secure when you have saved enough money and invested it wisely? Do you need other people to make you happy? Or at least a few hundred Facebook friends?

We can follow Paul's example of love for all people no matter who they are. Paul's love was not to make others like him. He genuinely wanted to bring the good news to them: by his love for them, Paul showed that God loves them even more. Let us ask the Lord to fill us with his love, so that we can help each other to hear the good news.

Lent

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, February 17, a day of fast and abstinence.

Ash Wednesday Schedule:

7am Mass & Distribution of Ashes

8:30am St. John School Mass & Distribution of Ashes

St. Clement Church

6pm Mass & Distribution of Ashes

Fast & Abstinence:

Fasting: On Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, those who are 18, but not yet 59, are allowed only one full meal. Two small meals are allowed as needed, but eating solid foods between meals is not permitted.

Abstinence from Meat: Those who are 14 years of age or older are to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent. The Church no longer attempts to prescribe our Lenten practices in detail. The above regulations simply highlight Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and other Fridays in Lent.

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for February

Universal Intention—Violence Against Women

We pray for women who are victims of violence, that they may be protected by society and have their sufferings considered and heeded.

2021 Lent Calendar

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
		February	17 Ash Wednesday	18	19	20
"Lent is the liturgical season of forty days which begins with Ash Wednesday and ends with the celebration of the Paschal Mystery (Easter Triduum). Lent is the primary penitential season in the Church's liturgical year, reflecting the forty days Jesus spent in the desert fasting and praying" (Catechism of the Catholic Church).			If possible, attend an Ash Wednesday liturgy and wear the cross of ashes. If not, stream it.	Choose Lenten offerings of prayer, penance, and almsgiving.	Abstain from eating meat today, and make your meals truly penitential.	Pick a saint to learn about and imitate. Ask for his or her special help and protection during Lent.
21	22	23	24	25	26	27
After Mass, decide what you need to move aside in your life in order to truly experience Jesus during Lent.	Raise the level of your prayer and really think about the meaning of the words you are saying.	Put a cross, crucifix, or other image of Jesus in each room of your home to help keep you focused.	As an extra Lenten offering, give up something you enjoy — just for today.	Resolve to say only positive things about yourself today.	Pray for the people in the world who can't afford to have meat as a regular part of their diets.	Make a list of the ways you can support the poor and resolve to do one activity each week.
28	1 March	2	3	4	5	6
Choose someone who has passed away or needs extra help as your Mass intention today.	Pray an extra Rosary today and every day this week.	Forgive someone who has hurt you.	Ask Jesus to heal whatever separates you from feeling God's bountiful love.	Read the Ten Commandments (Exodus 20:1-17) and renew your commitment to keep them.	Eat a meatless meal and remember why you are abstaining.	Adopt a local nursing home. Make cards for the residents, and offer prayers for each of them.
7	8	9	10	11	12	13
Take one idea from today's Gospel reading or homily to implement during the coming week.	At the end of the day, make an examination of conscience. Resolve to amend your life.	Look for evidence of God at work in your life today.	Deal with anyone in your life who may be interfering with your relationship with God.	Try to find the time to read an entire Gospel at one sitting.	Make a fresh start on your Lenten journey today. Renew your Lenten observances.	Attend a parish Reconciliation Service, if you feel safe, or go to Confession on your own.
14 Lactare Sunday	15	16	17	18	19	20
Celebrate the halfway point of Lent. Do something fun after Mass today.	Go to a private room, close the door, and pray to your Father in secret.	Ask God for a new grace today that will bring you closer to him.	Resolve to go the entire day without judging or criticizing anyone.	Pick one way you can simplify your lifestyle to make more room for God.	Figure out how much money you saved by not eating meat today and give it to the poor.	Trim down your possessions and give what you don't need to the poor.
21	22	23	24	25	26	27
Look around your neighborhood today for signs of new life.	Get up an extra 15 minutes each day for the next two weeks and spend that time in prayer.	Call Catholic Relief Services (877-HELP-CRS, www.catholicrelief.org) to see how you can help.	Make a conscious effort to see everyone with loving eyes today.	Today, pray for someone you don't like.	Eat pretzels today as a reminder that Catholics used to fast from milk, butter, eggs, cheese, cream, and meat.	Perform some act of service for your parish. Ask at the rectory for suggestions.
28	29	30	31	1 April	2	3
Place Palms around each of the images of Jesus in your home. Welcome the Messiah into your heart.	Recite the Profession of Faith or the Apostle's Creed each day this week.	Notice someone who may be hungry for love or attention and satisfy that hunger.	Try to find a reasonable explanation for some offense you may have suffered and let God be the final judge.	Look for someone who is poor or homeless and share your food.	Meditate on the Stations of the Cross today. Try to imagine yourself at the scene of each one.	Think about a way in which you might have betrayed Jesus today. Ask his pardon.

Growing in FAITH™

Discovering hope and joy in the Catholic faith.

February 2021

St. John the Evangelist

Rev. Gregory J. Daigle

One Minute Meditations

Struggle and prayer

During hard times, we can bring our true emotions, concerns, and fears into prayer. Lay it all at the feet of Jesus. Let His wisdom and love provide confidence and hope, even when our own emotions are in disarray.

Struggling is normal and helpful to growing in faith. Standing before God in truth is a sign that we are in a right relationship with Him.

The human person

Human beings are the clearest reflection of God among us. That makes human life sacred. The Catholic Church proclaims that the dignity of human life is the foundation of a moral vision for society.

Catholics are called to work to uphold the dignity and rights of all people. Catholics work for the good of everyone, especially working to support marriage and family.

"In all created things discern the providence and wisdom of God, and in all things give Him thanks"

(St. Teresa of Avila).

Grow in love during Lent

The point of the season of Lent is to transform our hearts – to become new, ready to greet our new life at Easter. "A new heart I will give you, and a new spirit I will put within you; and I will take out of your flesh the heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh" (Ezekiel 36:26). We can use this time in the desert to live lives of love for God and for one another.

Affirmation:

Recognizing and acknowledging the valuable qualities of a beloved builds feelings of trust, safety, and wellbeing. Offer God praise from your heart. Don't keep it to yourself, speak it out loud. Tell others how awesome He is and what He can do for them.

Attention: Spending time with God, one on one, is vital to getting through the day in His friendship. Give Him your attention each day, tell Him everything, and listen to what He says back to you. Being a good listener will benefit all your relationships, too.

Gifts: There is no point trying to impress God. He needs nothing that we have. However, we can give Him a gift from the heart. We can tithe, offer service, attend Mass, repent, change our lives to live His law. We can act as His hands and feet on Earth.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Prayer is the raising of one's mind and heart to God, asking for good things in harmony with His will. Christian prayer is the lifeblood of an intimate relationship of the children of God with their Father, with his Son Jesus Christ, and with the Holy Spirit who dwells in their hearts.

Why do Catholics pray?

All religions, and salvation history in particular, testifies to the human desire for God. And God continues to draw every person to the mysterious encounter known as prayer.

Simple ways to live a better life

One consequence of a protracted pandemic is that we are almost forced to rethink the way we go about our daily lives. It's a good time to think about simplifying the way we live:

Live in the moment. We can't change the past and dwelling on the future is unproductive. The choices we make right now are all that count.

Avoid drama. There will always be someone whose situation is worse than our own. If you find yourself seeking attention and sympathy from other people – or get drawn in by those who do – try substituting activities you find positive and interesting instead. Prayer helps.

Talk less. Weigh your words before you say them. Spend more time listening.

Spend time with happy people.

Connect in safe and healthy ways with people who are positive and want to improve their lives. Let go of those who drain your energy.

Work happy. No matter how you earn a paycheck, give it your very best effort. That turns any job into a blessing.

from Scripture

Luke 9:23-36, Linger on the mountaintop

While the Transfiguration was a fantastic encounter, it was not particularly joyful. Moses and Elijah spoke with Jesus about "his exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem" (9:31). They referred to Jesus' death, as the shadow of the Cross loomed. Like Moses' exodus from slavery in Egypt however, Jesus' exodus would deliver His people from the slavery of sin.

When he offered to build shelters for the three men, Peter clearly wanted to remain on the mountaintop in this holy moment. Sometimes we have an inspiring experience and want to stay there avoiding the realities of daily life. Yet, like Jesus, we cannot linger on the mountaintop but must come down to take our place in the Kingdom.

Finally, God used the Transfiguration to speak a message – the same one He spoke at Jesus' baptism. He confirmed Jesus as His son, the Messiah, and added, "Listen to Him." The son of God has God's power and authority. If we believe that Jesus is the son of God, then surely we will want to do what He says.

Q & A Is it possible for real people to be holy?

On its simplest level, being holy means living a life centered on God. This is done by talking with Him continuously, imitating His behavior, and respecting His creations. It also means being part of the Church He established on Earth to help us be holy. Try this:

Talk to God. Spending time together is the best way to get to know God better.

Practice sharing. God wants us to take care of each other. Look for ways to share your money, time, and talents with someone who needs them.

Celebrate the Sacraments. Make Sunday Mass the highlight of your week. Attend if you can do it safely, stream it if you can't. Just don't miss it.

Be a voice in the wilderness. When you notice an injustice, speak out and take action. Treat all people with the dignity they deserve as children of God.

Share your faith. Talk about God with anyone who will listen. We can't keep His love to ourselves. We have to pass it on.

Feasts & Celebrations

February 11 – Our Lady of Lourdes (1858). A heavenly lady who called herself, "The Immaculate Conception," appeared to St. Bernadette Soubirous, a poor girl from a village in France. After the first vision of the Blessed Virgin Mary, a spring with miraculous healing waters emerged from a nearby cave.

February 17 – Ash Wednesday. Marking the first day of Lent, ashes from the palms of the previous Passion Sunday are blessed and placed on the forehead as a sign of penance. One form of Lenten observance is to pray before the Stations of the Cross, meditating on Jesus' walk to Calvary. February 22 – St. Peter's Chair (1st century). We celebrate St. Peter's establishment of the Holy See and pray for the preservation of God's Church.

February 23 – St. Polycarp (156). As Bishop of Smyrna, Polycarp faithfully cared for his flock despite being surrounded by pagans and a government opposed to his religion.

Before being martyred, he thanked God for making him worthy of a martyr's death.
