The Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 15, 2023

The Lamb of God. (John 1:29)

When you hear John the Baptist call Jesus the “Lamb of God,” you might picture a cute baby sheep leaping in a pasture or happily resting on its shepherd’s shoulders. But that can be confusing. How can Jesus be that kind of lamb?

Israelites in Jesus’ time would have understood what John was getting at. They would likely have called to mind the feast of Passover. Each year during that feast, every Jewish family slaughtered and ate an unblemished lamb in remembrance of God bringing his people out of slavery in Egypt (Exodus 12).

They might also have thought about Isaiah’s song of the Suffering Servant, who, like a lamb, silently allowed himself to be led to the slaughter while he bore the guilt of us all (Isaiah 53:6-7).

Finally, they might have remembered when God asked Abraham to sacrifice his beloved son, Isaac. As Isaac prepared the wood for the sacrifice, he asked why there was no sheep to offer. Abraham replied, “God will provide the sheep for the burnt offering” (Genesis 22:8).

John likely had all this in mind when he called Jesus the Lamb of God: Jesus was the sacrifice, provided by God, who would silently offer his life to redeem us all.

Contemplating Jesus as the Lamb of God gives us an infinite number of reasons to worship him. We can praise him for delivering us from enslavement to sin. We can ponder what he silently bore to redeem us. We can bow to him as the perfect sacrifice, provided for us by God himself. Jesus is so much bigger, so much more committed to us, so much more glorious in his mercy than we could ever imagine!

At Mass today, we will be invited to “Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.” How happy we are to be called to his supper, to behold him and to receive him in the Eucharist!

“Lord Jesus, Lamb of God, I worship you!”

Dear Family:

In today's readings, we hear about three people who were sent by God to proclaim God's Word: Isaiah, John the Baptist, and Paul. Each of us is also called to proclaim the good news and yet we can have trouble expressing our point of view. Friends raised in the Church who no longer practice can perceive judgment, while friends from other traditions or from no tradition might respond with defensiveness. The work of God in the world is one of healing all divisions. Our proclamation of what is both true and beautiful must aim at that as well. One way in which we can live out this call is to share our joy.

Some things to consider:

What about the Christian life makes you feel joyful?

Find a partner to read together Pope Francis' The Joy of the Gospel, reading and discussing a chapter a week until Lent.

Do you have a speech that tells why you are a Christian? Write two sentences that you could tell someone who asks.

Family, thanks so much for a beautiful Advent and Christmas Season. My personal gratitude for all who gave of themselves to make ready our hearts and our church for the coming of the Lord Jesus anew. I lift my prayers to God for you all.

I apologize for not writing sooner to you about these things. As part of my ongoing dealing with sudden death of my soul mate, Fr. Jimmy Jeanfreau, I share with you that it is still a struggle. However, your cards, kind words before and after Masses, and your great spirit of generosity have helped lighten this burden. All I have to offer is my life as your pastor in thanksgiving to God who heals the brokenhearted. I am also comforted by the last words Fr. Jimmy wrote in his bulletin article before his death - "...there is no love without the pain of loss."
How prophetic indeed.

Tomorrow our nation will celebrate a national holiday in memory of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Let us continue to work to heal our divisions and truly serve as brothers and sisters to one another in the name of the Lord.

Peace,

Fr. Greg

Angels for Angels Ministry

Angels for Angels is a new outreach program for St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church parishioners to actively participate. There are 3 main goals in mind:

1. Serving the Iberville school community with specific needs for specific children.

With the alarming rate of degradation of the family unit, many parents cannot or are not providing for their children as they once did. Daily neglect in basic care such as hygiene, clean clothing and necessary school items are now a normal occurrence in schools.

Teachers will contact our program with a specific need for a specific child in their classroom. For example, the teacher may contact us for a PreK student that needs a blanket for nap time, a child that wears tennis shoes being held together by duct tape and needs a new pair of tennis shoes, spare underwear or change of clothes, toothbrush or other need.

2. Providing an outreach program for us to use what God teaches us every day.

As a volunteer, you would be contacted to help fulfill that specific need by making/purchasing a blanket for nap time, hair brushes, tooth brushes, for example, to give to that child.

"In all things I have shown you that by working hard in this way we must help the weak and remember the works of the Lord Jesus, how he himself said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive." (Acts 20:35)

Our faith compels us to move into action! We will impact a child's life in our local community and live out our faith by helping the innocent children in need.

3. To remove the burden on teachers who currently use their own monies to purchase much needed items for their students in need.

This program is much needed in our community. With people falling away from God and drugs ravishing our beautiful country, the children need a reminder that God is here and ever present for them and that people do care about them. We can lead by example and be the servant that God calls us to be by beginning with our local children. It will be an ongoing outreach to meet these needs continuously. Teachers and school personnel may contact Katie Berthelot at 225-776-2809 with specific needs for their students.

If you would like to be on a calling list to help these children, please call the church office at 687-2402.

Nativity Scene in Church

The church will remain open until 3:30pm Sunday, January 15 for anyone who would like to make a prayerful visit to our Lord and Savior in the crèche.

Volunteers are welcome Monday, January 16 at 8am to help dismantle the crèche.

Holy Spirit Prayer Group

The Holy Spirit Prayer Group will meet in church Sunday, January 15 from 3-5pm.

The mission of the prayer group is to offer praise to God, and intercessory prayers for individuals, our community and the needs of the world. Come join us!

GROWING IN FAITH
St. Peter Bible Study
January 19-March 23, 2023

The Study of St. Peter is subtitled “Cornerstone of Catholicism,” and Peter is a vital and fundamental stone, but the more we study and understand the life of Peter, the better we will know the one Peter followed and professed, the true and absolute Cornerstone of the Church, Jesus Christ.

The 10-session Bible Study on St. Peter begins Thursday, January 19. Sessions are held in the church office conference room from 1:30-3pm and 6:15-7:45pm. You may attend either session and receive your study guide ($10) at the first session.
