Hello, God

Just before our first reading it says that "the word of the Lord was rare; there were not many visions." (1Sam 3:1) I imagine most people today would think that was true. Do you think God has stopped talking? People apparently felt that way in Samuel's time. Let's look at the reading to see what Samuel's experience can teach us.

At first Samuel thinks it is Eli calling him. It is not unusual for people to miss a sign from God. If you have a talent that you are proud of, perhaps it is a sign that God wants you to use that talent to help others. Or if a friend tells you she is concerned about your health, it could be God's way of telling you to get help. Try to see God speaking in whatever happens to you and you may hear a lot more than you think.

Samuel also gets help from Eli. Eli began to recognize that the Lord was speaking to Samuel. Sometimes we need help discerning what the Lord is telling us. A good spiritual director can help. He or she will probably ask how often you pray. In our reading Samuel finally speaks directly to God, instead of going back to Eli. So if you wonder what God plans for your life, try spending more time in prayer with him. I bet we have all had times where we didn't know if we are doing God's will because we didn't take time to pray. But don't do all the talking. Give God some quiet time to hear his response. For God hasn't stopped talking; we just stopped listening.

Tom Schmidt

Pastor's Letter

Dear Family:

The genre of today's first reading is that of a "call narrative." While many call narratives are in Scripture, the call of Samuel is unique. Other such narratives depict an individual hearing the voice of God and understanding who it is that is speaking (consider, for example, Abraham, Isaiah, and Jeremiah). Samuel does not grasp whose voice is calling him. The priest Eli, however, understands this call and instructs Samuel in how to respond, should he hear that voice again. Verses that are cut from today's text are especially interesting since within them we learn that by responding faithfully to God's call, Samuel has difficult words that he must deliver to his mentor, Eli.

In the Gospel selection from John, we are presented with a remarkable story. Like the first reading for today, it can be described as a call narrative. The scene opens with John the Baptist standing with two of his disciples when Jesus walks by. When John refers to Jesus as the "Lamb of God," John's disciples immediately leave him to follow Jesus. It is as if John has fulfilled his responsibility to these two men. He has helped them to recognize Jesus. Andrew, one of John's disciples who left John and followed Jesus, in turn "found his own brother Simon Peter" and "brought him to Jesus."

Seemingly evident in today's selections from First Samuel and the Gospel of John is that people of faith are called to assist one another in recognizing the mystery and presence of God among them. Clearly, the priest Eli, John the Baptist, and Andrew were instruments of God.

Some questions for reflection:

How and to whom can you be a witness for Jesus today?

What does it take to "stay" or "remain" with Jesus?

How has Christ changed your vision? What has he enabled you to see and see differently?

I am away visiting my brother and family this weekend for our celebration of family Christmas. Please give a warm welcome to Fr. Jon Koehler and Father Paul Counce. I'll return for morning Mass on Wednesday, January 17th.

Peace,

Fr. Greg

January Devotion of the Month

The Holy Name of Jesus

The month of January is traditionally dedicated to the Holy Name of Jesus. After the Blessed Virgin Mary conceived by the Holy Spirit, the angel Gabriel appeared to St. Joseph and told him that the Child's name should be called Jesus, meaning "God Saves." According to Jewish law, on the 8th day after his birth a male child was to be circumcised, receive his name, and become a full member of God's covenant people. According to the old Roman liturgical calendar, the Feast of the Circumcision of Jesus was celebrated on January 1st, eight days after Christmas, the same day that He was given His sacred name. Currently we celebrate the Solemnity of the Mother of God on January 1st and honor the Holy Name of Jesus on January 3rd. For Catholics, Jesus' sacred name is the object of a special devotion symbolized by the monogram "IHS," (sometimes called a Christogram), which is the first three letters of the Greek spelling of His name.

Eucharistic Adoration

Come and Adore! He is Waiting for You!

These words of Jesus are an excellent invitation to prayer before the Blessed Sacrament:

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light." (Mt 11:28-30)

The Adoration Chapel is open from 4am-10pm. To volunteer for a scheduled hour or as a substitute, contact JoAnn Daigle at 225.687.4621 or 225.776.4865.

Growing in Faith

Winter/Spring Bible Study

Bible Study began Thursday, January 11, 2024 on the Book of Revelations from 1:30-3pm and the Thursday night group are discussing "1 Corinthians—The Church and the Christian Community" from 6:15-7:45pm. The Monday group will conclude their study on the Gospel of Mark from 4-5:30pm beginning Monday, January 29.

All sessions take place in the church office conference room and are free to attend. It is not too late to join us.

A Vocation View

Chosen for Consecrated Life

"Come, and you will see." How are you being called to come and see how you can build up the kingdom of God as His co-worker? Consider the generous service of priesthood or consecrated life. Talk to your priest or reach out to the Vocation Office at 225-336-8778 or via email: jjohnson@diobr.org.

Our office will be closed Monday, January 15 in observance of Martin Luther King, Jr. Day.

Please note that Tuesday, January 17, 2024 a Liturgy of the Word with distribution of Holy Communion will be celebrated. Masses will begin again on Wednesday, January 18.

Holy Spirit Prayer Group

A Community of Faith Praying for Others

The Holy Spirit Prayer Group will meet Sunday, January 14 from 3-5pm in church. For more information, contact the church office at 225.687.2402.

Historical Tidbit About Catholicism in Iberville Parish and St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church

Did you know our church was very purposefully designed ?

Architectural meanings in our church – altar faces the east in direction of Jerusalem, Altar is Jesus' head, communion pew is his arms, nave is his body, foyer area is his feet. Statues – St. Anthony is waving to welcome everyone into church; Sacred Heart of Jesus has open arms; St. Joseph, St. Rose and St. Elizabeth Ann Seton dedicated to families; St. Paul welcoming inquirers to the faith; St. Peter holding keys to kingdom of God given him by Jesus. The center aisle is 172' long.

- ♦ What do the Latin words, "Non est hic allud nisi domus Dei et porta coeli," above the front door mean?
"This is nothing else but the house of God and the gateway to heaven." Genesis 28:17
- ♦ What do the Latin words "Offertur nomini meo oblatio munda" over the altar mean?
"And everywhere they bring sacrifice to my name, a pure offering." Malachi 1:11
