Third Sunday of Advent December 15, 2024

Not Ready? No Problem!

We often get so caught up in all the things we do to prepare for Christmas that we forget Advent all together. The readings remind us that in spite of the stress we may feel thinking about how close Christmas is, we are called to rejoice for the Lord is near.

The stress we feel may be from fear. But did you ever notice how much easier it is when you have someone to shop with you, or write the Christmas cards, or decorate the tree? "Shout for joy...fear not!" says the prophet Zephaniah in the first reading. (Zeph 3:14) He tells us the Lord is not coming to punish us for waiting till the last minute to put up the tree. The prophet says the Lord is in our midst, we are not alone. "He has turned away your enemies." (Zeph 3:15)

And as if that wasn't good enough, he says that the Lord rejoices over us! How many times have you wondered if you could ask the Lord for help? Zephaniah reminds us that the Lord is happy to help. And St. Paul says the same thing in the second reading: "Have no anxiety at all...make your requests known to God." (Phil 4:6) That is where Advent comes in. We can look forward to the Lord's presence in our lives. That is why faith and hope are central to the theme of Advent. Our faith in God's love for us gives us hope that he will support us in our weakness and fill us with the joy he has over us.

Pastor's Letter

December 15, 2025

Dear Family:

John the Baptist's listeners were convinced that God was about to act decisively to correct human history. God was going to carry out this correction through a person specially chosen and prepared for the role, someone called the "anointed," in Greek, christos, or "christ," and in Hebrew messiah. When the Messiah came, they believed, he would gather a force of chosen individuals to his side. To make sure that these individuals were ready, God would first send someone to prepare the way, to explain what was necessary to serve as a citizen-soldier in the anointed one's army. This is the context of this Sunday's Gospel. John's listeners wonder if he is the anointed one, but John demurs, revealing instead that he is the one sent to prepare the way.

Given the great consequences of John's work, it is somewhat surprising to see that the content of his preaching is mundane. Preparation for God's decisive intervention in history did not require mystical or military training. Instead, John's preaching focused on the everyday. He told his listeners to share their clothing and food, to conduct their business honestly, not to give into greed. Given the religious ferment of the day one wonders how many were disappointed by this message.

The Messiah came, and many were ready to follow, and the church grew very quickly. In our journey through Advent, we cannot forget that we are still awaiting Christ's arrival daily in quiet ways through the Holy Spirit. It can be tempting to think we need to find dramatic ways to prepare, but God asks of us nothing more than does today's Gospel. Share with those who have nothing. Be honest in your dealings with others. Control your greed and other passions. Only when such things are done will we be ready when the Holy Spirit comes upon us and reveals the good things God is doing for our freedom.

Some questions for reflection:

How are you preparing this advent for Christ's arrival?

What small things can you do to prepare?

How can you help someone else prepare the way for Christ?

I will be away this weekend. Please give a warm welcome to Fr. Jon Koehler and Fr. David Allen who will be offering Masses this weekend. We are truly grateful for the retired priests of our diocese that continue to be of service to all of us.

Peace,

Fr. Greg

100 Year Campaign News

First, a huge thank you for all of your generosity that is helping us meet the monetary needs to begin our first phase of renovation. The bids for the first phase originally came in over $400,000 than we anticipated. In part due to rising costs and the problem of renovation of the roof on the east side of our church (the side near the office building).

Mr. Henry Carville and our campaign committee went back to the companies that bid on the project. To make the east side more accessible for scaffolding, we offered to tear down the carport on that side which will allow the company to have good access to complete their work. We will be in conversation with the companies as we go forward with the current bids on the project. I am grateful that our parishioners, Ronnie Hebert and Billy Tullier have volunteered to assist with the management of this project. If you see them around town, please express your thanks to them. Their expertise will help make our renovation a complete success. We'll be keeping you informed as we continue to move forward.

The Advent Wreath Candle for the 3rd Sunday of Advent burns in loving memory of:

Ragusa, Mancuso, Collins,
Morales, Nola & Bezet Families

Calvin Wilbert III,

Sharing Christmas Joy

Nativity Scene in Church

Our beautiful crèche with life-size Fontanini figures will be available for viewing for anyone who would like an opportunity to make a prayerful visit to our Lord and Savior. The church will be open and the lights will be on daily from 7am-3:30pm beginning Tuesday, December 17, 2024 until Sunday, January 19, 2025.

Holiday Visits to Homebound

We will be visiting the homebound, the sick and elderly parishioners during the holidays Thursday and Friday, December 19 & 20. If anyone would like to join us in bringing poinsettias and Christmas joy to the homebound, please call JoAnn Landry at 225.776.0782.

Christmas Flower Envelopes

The envelope for Christmas flowers has been placed in the December packet of envelopes. The names of loved ones remembered with Christmas flowers will be published in future bulletins.

Eucharistic Adoration

Come and Adore. Jesus is Waiting for YOU.

These words of Jesus are an excellent invitation to prayer before the Blessed Sacrament:

"Come to me all you who labor and are heavily burdened, and I will refresh you and give you peace of Soul". (Mt. 11:28-29)

The Adoration Chapel is open from 4am-10pm.

Epiphany Concert

St. John the Evangelist Church
Sunday, January 12, 2025

4pm-5:15pm

Tickets ($25) are available for purchase for our Annual Epiphany Concert through St. John School (225.687.3056) and the St. John Church Office (225.687.2402).

Join us for songs for the journey - Sacred, Broadway & Big Band music performed by Father Greg Daigle accompanied by Bill Grimes and the St. John Epiphany orchestra benefitting St. John School. Epiphany Concert tickets make wonderful Christmas gifts. Why not purchase one for yourself and a friend while supporting St. John School?

Knights of Columbus Raffle Calendars

The Knights of Columbus Council 970 has 2025 Raffle Calendars for sale to support their charity endeavors through the year. The calendars are $20 each and offer 365 chances to win. Call or text Bart Schlatre @ 385-5712 if interested in purchasing.

The Knights of Columbus' mission is to empower Catholic men to live their faith in their community, parish, work, and home.

OCIA Rite of Acceptance

In Loving Memory...

A grateful acknowledgement is made to the following persons who donated a memorial gift to St. John the Evangelist Church 100 Year Capital Campaign in loving memory of:
