O Little Town of Bethlehem

There is a Christmas song that says of Bethlehem: "Yet in thy dark streets shineth the everlasting Light." Though today it has many modern homes and buildings, you can still see that it is part of "the hill country...of Judah." (Lk 1:39) It is not too far from En Kerem, where John the Baptist was born, and apparently where today's Gospel takes place.

We see in the Gospel reading today how Elizabeth and her unborn child rejoiced at the news of Jesus' coming birth. The story implies that Mary went to see Elizabeth as soon as the angel told her about Jesus. I would think that talking about it made this miracle more real.

Jesus is the "everlasting Light" mentioned in the song. That light shines today, not just in Bethlehem, but everywhere that his followers bring it. When we console someone who is mourning, that light shines. When we forgive someone who hurt us, the light is burning. When we teach a child how to pray, it shines even brighter.

Our dark streets need the everlasting Light today as much as they did 2000 years ago. Today we remember how Mary and Elizabeth shared their faith in God. They did so much like we do today. Jesus, who seems to be invisible today, is seen in the shared faith of those who bring him into the world by their words and actions.

The Roman Catholic Diocese of
BATON ROUGE
 OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

08 December 2024

The Second Sunday of Advent

To The Priests, Deacons, and Faithful of the Diocese of Baton Rouge:

*Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.
 Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created, and you shall renew the face of the earth.*

Together, we pray as a church this ancient prayer invoking the power of the Holy Spirit. This gift of the Spirit is given to all of us in a special way in the Sacrament of Confirmation that fully initiates us into the Church and fills us with these gifts and the enthusiasm to take on the mission of Christ to renew the world. Many older Catholics remember that the age of Confirmation was younger when we were confirmed. After the Second Vatican Council, in many places, the age was raised to high school since many leaders felt that the sacrament would be better understood at an older age. This practice has worked well, but times have changed.

Our children are experiencing a culture which, at times, is hostile to our faith. Through social media of all forms, young people are confronted at a surprisingly younger age with challenges to their Catholic faith and morals. Given this new reality, I believe it is time to lower the age of Confirmation to give our children the full grace of the Sacrament of Confirmation at an earlier age to meet these challenges. After consultation with our pastors, catechists, and other evangelizers, I have decided to begin a transition plan in our Confirmation programs that will eventually lower the age of Confirmation to the seventh grade. Obviously, before we reach the seventh grade, we must create a formation plan for the present eighth graders – tenth graders in our parishes.

I make this announcement now so that each pastor can begin the plan for transition that best meets the needs of their parish. Support from the Diocesan Office of Evangelization and Catechesis will be offered to assist parish leaders in making this transition, which will be made as a parish with schools of religion and Catholic schools working together, under the leadership of their pastor.

This transition will be challenging but I also believe it will be a catalyst for foundational changes in how our parishes help our parents to form their children into missionary disciples on fire for Christ. There is so much more to be said, and you may have many questions. I simply ask your patience, for now. Early in the New Year, you will learn more of the specifics of how this change will be implemented in your parish. You can find a list of Frequently Asked Questions on the diocesan website (diobr.org) or through resources provided by your pastor.

Come Holy Spirit!

Hope in the Lord,

Most Reverend Michael G. Duca
 Bishop of Baton Rouge

Pastor's Letter

December 22, 2024

Dear Family:

The readings this week provide a reminder that small things often have great consequence in God's eyes, but only those attentive to the will of God notice them. In fact, Christianity is built on little moments that turn out to be profoundly significant to people doing their best to serve God. This week's Gospel, for example, narrates little more than a greeting between two close relatives and the words of joy they exchange, but in it, Luke highlights God's Spirit at work.

Luke draws these insights from biblical traditions. In this Sunday's first reading, for example, the prophet Micah reminds Israel that their kings came from the smallest clan in a historically marginal tribe. Micah was also writing when Israel was waiting for a new king to be born. Micah's prophecy may have directly addressed the political situation of his day, but later Israelites saw in his words a prophecy of the coming messiah.

Luke likely had themes like these in mind when he composed the narrative of Mary's visitation to Elizabeth. The Spirit arrived not with flash and fanfare but with Mary's voice. When Elizabeth heard it, her child stirred, and in that sudden motion, she received insight from the Spirit. Her simple words of blessing still resound through our prayer today. "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb." Elizabeth recognized a small moment of great consequence and knew exactly how to respond.

We may hope that we would be as sensitive to the divine presence. It would be easy to miss the work of the Spirit in the arrival of a relative or the movement of a child in the womb. But as this week's second reading suggests, obedience to God's will makes one's heart sensitive to God's subtle but powerful presence. Like Elizabeth, we too can be surprised by joy wherever this presence makes itself felt.

Some questions for reflection:

Have you ever noticed the divine in a place other people overlook?

Has living the Gospel ever sensitized you to God's presence?

How do you respond when you notice God's presence?

Many thanks for all who prepared the rectory with savory seasonal culinary specialties as we celebrated our annual Open House. I enjoyed visiting with the many of you who dropped by for some Advent/Christmas Cheer.

Thanks to all who helped prepare and celebrate our GEMs Luncheon. This opportunity for our GEMs (senior parishioners) is always uplifting in joy and fellowship. Many of our Senior Parishioners were also given Poinsettias. Thanks to all who made special deliveries to our Seniors as well.

Thanks to our St. John School Community for a splendid Christmas Concert under the direction of our new Music Teacher, Mr. Jason Mann. Jason has done a wonderful job reigniting our music program.

Let us hasten to the celebration of the Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ with the attitude of the two women in this Sunday's Gospel - surprise and joy.

Peace,

Fr. Greg
