THE LORD RAISES THOSE WHO

Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time September 28, 2025

Coach Paul

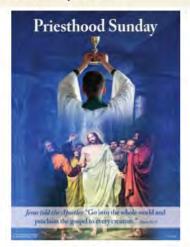

Today's reading from First Timothy sounds almost like a coach getting his team ready for the big game. This coach has much higher goals than a home run or a touchdown. Instead of pursuing a league championship, he seeks faith, love, patience, and gentleness. How about us? Are we in the game or on the sidelines? Let's look at what Coach Paul is talking about.

Faith is a relationship with the Lord in which we imitate Jesus' outlook on life, his teachings, his love of God. We struggle with his commands to love our enemies, to turn the other cheek, to forgive all wrongs, and to take up our cross each day. As Paul would say, we are "competing well for the faith."

We pursue love by listening to the Gospel, in which Jesus tells the parable of the rich man who was only concerned with his own comfort. Jesus says that if we truly understood the prophets, such as our first reading from Amos, we would not spend all our energy and wealth on ourselves.

As we learn to let go of our need to have everything go our way, we become more patient with people who disagree with us, or with frustrations and problems. We learn to see God in our setbacks as well as in our successes. Experiencing the Lord is the championship we want. Tom Schmidt

Fr. Martin Lawrence will be installed as pastor of St. John the Evangelist Church by Bishop Michael Duca Sunday, October 5 at 11am Mass. Please join us.

September 28 is Priesthood Sunday.

"Whoever is not against us is for us." Pray for your priests. They heard God calling them to the priesthood and chose to serve Christ. Now, they enrich our spiritual well-being every day in the name of God. Talk to your priest or reach out to the Vocation Office at 225.336.8778 or via email: jjohnson@diobr.org.

October: Month of the Holy Rosary and Respect Life

Major Feast: Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary (Oct. 7)

The Rosary is one of the most powerful forms of prayer that the Church gives to the faithful; popes, saints, even the Blessed Mother herself have spoken on the importance of praying the Rosary. Like Padre Pio who said: "Love the Madonna and pray the rosary, for her Rosary is the weapon against the evils of the world today. All graces given by God pass through the Blessed Mother."

It's a simple but profound way to meditate on the life of Jesus and to grow closer to Mary who will always lead us to her Son.

How to celebrate: Pray the Rosary (or pray a decade of the rosary).

Praying the Rosary Together

The Rosary will be prayed at the home of Betty Aucoin, 57765 Senator Gay Boulevard each Wednesday during the month of October at 7pm beginning October 1. For more information, you may call Betty at 225.776.1685 or Derryl Comeaux at 225.687.3950.

Betty, Addie and Derryl invite everyone to join them in this loving tribute to Our Lady of the Holy Rosary.

Don't Wait Until the Last Moment!

The Power of Anointing of the Sick Explained

When most Catholics hear the phrase Anointing of the Sick, they immediately think of "last rites." The image of a priest being called to the bedside of a dying person—sometimes at the very last breath—is what many associate with this sacrament. While this scenario is certainly one of the important contexts in which the sacrament is administered, it is by no means its only purpose. In fact, the Church teaches that the Anointing of the Sick is not reserved for the dying, but is a sacrament of healing, strength, forgiveness, and hope for anyone facing serious illness, suffering, or the frailty of old age. Understanding this sacrament in its fullness not only removes fear and misconceptions, but also opens Catholics to the profound grace Christ desires to give us through it.

Today, we'll dive deep into the history, theology, and power of the Anointing of the Sick, and why it is an essential sacrament for the journey of faith—not only at the hour of death, but throughout life.

1. The Scriptural Foundation

The roots of this sacrament are firmly planted in Scripture. In the Letter of James, we read:

"Is any one among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the Church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord; and the prayer of faith will save the sick man, and the Lord will raise him up; and if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven." (James 5:14–15)

This passage outlines the essential elements of the sacrament:

The presence of the Church's ministers (the elders, or priests).

Anointing with holy oil in the name of the Lord.

A promise of healing, forgiveness, and restoration.

From the beginning, the Church has recognized that the healing ministry of Christ continues through the anointing of the sick, carried out by His ordained ministers.

2. Christ the Divine Physician

Throughout the Gospels, Jesus heals the sick, restores sight to the blind, frees the possessed, and even raises the dead. His ministry was one of compassion and restoration.

"He went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every infirmity among the people." (Matthew 4:23)

The Anointing of the Sick makes present this same healing power of Christ. When the priest anoints with oil and prays, it is Christ Himself who touches the sick person, bringing them strength, forgiveness, and spiritual healing. Sometimes, when it is God's will, even physical healing occurs.

The Church therefore calls this sacrament a sacrament of healing—alongside Confession (the Sacrament of Reconciliation)—because it restores the soul and strengthens the body in the face of suffering.

3. Clearing the Misconception: "Last Rites"

One of the biggest misunderstandings about this sacrament is that it is meant only for those on their deathbed. For centuries, Catholics often delayed calling the priest until the very last moment, fearing that receiving the Anointing too early might "use it up" or somehow hasten death.

The Second Vatican Council clarified and restored the fuller understanding of this sacrament. The Church teaches that:

Anointing is not limited to the dying. It can be received by anyone facing serious illness, undergoing surgery, or experiencing the weakness of old age.

It can be repeated. If a person recovers and then falls ill again, or if their condition worsens, they may receive the sacrament again.

It is part of a process. When someone is nearing death, the Church offers not only Anointing, but also Viaticum (Holy Communion for the journey), and the Apostolic Pardon—together forming what many people call the "last rites." Understanding this frees Catholics from fear and opens the door to receiving grace earlier in illness, rather than waiting until the final breath.

4. What Happens in the Sacrament

The rite of Anointing of the Sick is simple but profound:

Prayer of Faith – The priest prays with and for the sick person, calling upon God's mercy and strength.

Laying on of Hands – The priest lays hands on the sick person in silence, invoking the Holy Spirit.

Anointing with Oil – Using the Oil of the Sick (blessed by the bishop at the Chrism Mass), the priest anoints the forehead and hands, saying:

"Through this holy anointing may the Lord in his love and mercy help you with the grace of the Holy Spirit. May the Lord who frees you from sin save you and raise you up."

The effect of this sacrament is nothing less than an encounter with the healing Christ. (continued next page)

5. The Graces of the Anointing

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC 1520–1523) describes the graces of this sacrament:

a. Union with the Passion of Christ

Suffering is no longer meaningless. The sick person is united with Christ's redemptive suffering, making their pain a participation in the salvation of the world.

b. Strength, Peace, and Courage

Illness brings fear, anxiety, and weakness. Through the sacrament, the Holy Spirit gives the sick person courage and peace to endure, offering spiritual healing even if physical healing is not granted.

c. Forgiveness of Sins

If the sick person is unable to go to confession, the Anointing of the Sick forgives sins, provided there is contrition. It restores the soul to grace.

d. Healing of the Body (If God Wills)

Sometimes, God grants physical healing through this sacrament. Countless testimonies speak of miraculous recoveries following anointing, though the sacrament's deeper promise is always spiritual healing.

e. Preparation for the Final Journey

If the person is near death, the sacrament completes the grace of baptism, confirmation, and Eucharist, preparing the soul to meet God.

6. Who Can Receive the Sacrament?

The Church teaches that the following may receive the Anointing of the Sick:

Any Catholic who is seriously ill.

Those about to undergo serious surgery.

The elderly, especially if weakened by age.

Those struggling with serious mental or emotional illness.

A sick child who has reached the age of reason.

Importantly, the sacrament is not reserved for the "last moment," but can be received multiple times as needed.

7. The Role of the Family and Community

When the sacrament is celebrated, it is not only the priest and the sick person involved—it is the whole Church. Families who invite the priest to anoint a loved one are helping bring the healing presence of Christ into the home. Many parishes even offer communal Anointing of the Sick Masses, where those who are ill or elderly can come together and receive this sacrament publicly, strengthening both their faith and that of the community.

This highlights a powerful truth: suffering is not endured alone, but within the Body of Christ.

8. Testimonies of Healing and Grace

Countless stories illustrate how the Anointing of the Sick transforms lives:

A cancer patient overwhelmed by fear who found peace and courage after being anointed.

An elderly woman who regained physical strength and lived several more years joyfully after receiving the sacrament. A man struggling with depression who experienced deep healing and reconciliation through the sacrament's grace. Even when physical healing does not occur, families often speak of the peace, consolation, and holy strength their loved one received.

9. Why We Shouldn't Wait

Delaying the sacrament until the last breath robs us of its full power. The Church encourages us to call the priest early—when a serious illness begins, before surgery, or when someone is weakened by age.

Think of it this way: If the sacrament is a medicine of grace, why would we only take it at the very end, rather than throughout the journey of illness and suffering?

10. A Sacrament of Hope

The Anointing of the Sick is ultimately a sacrament of hope. It proclaims that sickness, suffering, and even death do not have the last word—Christ does.

By participating in this sacrament, Catholics are reminded that they are not abandoned, that their suffering has meaning in Christ, and that the Holy Spirit gives them strength for the journey.

In Conclusion

The Anointing of the Sick isn't just for the dying. It is for anyone who is seriously ill, preparing for surgery, elderly, or struggling with the burdens of life. It is a sacrament of healing, forgiveness, strength, and hope—a gift of Christ the Divine Physician to His Church.

As Catholics, we should reclaim the true meaning of this sacrament. Do not be afraid to ask for it, and do not wait until the last possible moment. The Lord longs to pour His healing grace upon us—not only at the hour of death, but throughout our lives.

May we turn to this sacrament with faith, and may it always remind us that Christ walks with us in sickness and in health, in life and in death, until the day we share in His eternal resurrection.
